PICTORIAL DIRECTORIES ARE COMING SOON!

Thank you to all of our church family that had photos taken for the new directory. We are in the production phase and hope to have them for you to take home in late December.

Do you remember waiting for Christmas morning as a child? I had an Advent calendar with a piece of candy on each day, counting down to Christmas. The anticipation was exciting but also agonizing. My parents weren't being cruel by making me wait. They knew Christmas would come at just the right time, and no amount of begging would change it.

This November, as we conclude our journey through 2 Peter and enter the Advent season, we'll discover that our waiting for Jesus' return is similar to waiting for Christmas.

In 2 Peter 3, Peter addresses a question that still challenges us today: If Jesus is really coming back, why is it taking so long? False teachers in the early church were using this delay to mock the Christian faith. They claimed that since Jesus hadn't returned yet, He never would.

Peter's response reveals God's character. The delay isn't because God is slow or has forgotten His promise. From God's perspective the timing is perfect. We are reminded that a day is like a thousand years and a thousand years like a day for God. And the delay actually reveals God's patient love for humanity. Every day that Jesus doesn't return is another day for someone to be saved, another opportunity for people to turn to Him.

evangelism, prayer, and obedience. We should invest in what will last forever rather than temporary things. So, while we are waiting, we should make every effort to be found spotless, blameless, and at peace with Him when He returns.

As we conclude our study in 2 Peter, this topic serves as a wonderful bridge to Advent. On the last Sunday of November, we step into Advent, exploring Psalm 122. The ancient pilgrims singing their way to Jerusalem capture what it means to wait with anticipation. They rejoiced at Another dynamic is how we live until Jesus comes back. Peter urges us to live holy and godly lives, actively working to “speed” Christ’s coming through the invitation to worship. They longed for God’s presence. They prayed for peace and committed to work for the good of God’s people.

Like those pilgrims, we’re on a journey toward home. Our feet may be standing in today’s circumstances, but our hearts long for God’s Kingdom. We’re not killing time until Jesus returns. We’re actively preparing, praying, and living for His Kingdom. We’re anticipating the day when our waiting will be over and we’ll stand in the gates of God’s eternal city.

The question isn’t when Jesus is coming back. The question is: How are we living because He is coming back? This November, let’s live as people who truly believe the promise, who work actively for His Kingdom, and who long with joyful anticipation for our King to come.

Come, Lord Jesus, come.

FAMILY NEWS

CARE MINISTRY

Senior Companion Birthdays

Marilynn F. Nov 10

Marilynn is a retired High School English Teacher. She lives at The Terraces in Newark, a lovely senior home near her nephew. As a member of our congregation she was a faithful choir member, a women's circle member and a Bible study leader. In retirement she learned to knit and made prayer shawls for church members and friends. Marilynn always loved cats, welcoming strays and cared for many with love and patience. She will be celebrating her 94th birthday on November 10th. She no longer is able to attend worship, but welcomes visitors. -Written by her Steward Rachel R.

Hiram B. Nov 11

This month we celebrate Hiram!

A few fun facts about him: his favorite hymn is The Old Rugged Cross and his favorite scripture is Psalm 23. One of his favorite childhood memories is building tunnels through the snowdrifts. Fall is his favorite season--the colors and hunting season make it extra special. Hiram and his wife, Linda, spend this time of year in Mississippi visiting loved ones. We hope you have a great day, Hiram!

Kurt W. Nov 14

Kurt is one of our "Senior Companions" and will be celebrating his 83rd birthday this month (as well as 59 years of marriage with Linda!). Kurt is a veteran of the U. S. Air Force and we thank him for his service along with our other veterans whom we honor this month on Veteran's Day. Please wish our friend Kurt well on his special day and may God continue to bless Kurt and Linda on their journey together. -Written by his Steward Dan F.

Ruth B. Nov 18

Ruth will be 94 this year. She joined the United Church in April 1943. She spent her childhood in Bloomfield with 5 siblings. Due to health reasons Ruth doesn't attend church regularly anymore, but is able to enjoy special events at church on occasion. I'm sure many of you know some of her family: Jim and Nancy (son-in-law and daughter); Mark and Lauren (grandson-in-law and granddaughter), Carter (great grandson). Ruth resides with Jim and Nancy. I'm sure she would enjoy receiving birthday wishes. Written by her Steward Bev F.

Congratulations, Lou V.!

While recovering from a stroke earlier this year, Lou received the exciting news that he had been selected as a candidate for induction into the Sayville High School Athlete Hall of Fame, Class of 2025.

During his high school years on Long Island, Lou excelled in both football and baseball, earning varsity letters in each. He was named to the All-County football team as a freshman and received the Marinus Buys Trophy in baseball for his .433 batting average his senior year.

In September, Lou and Carolyn traveled to Long Island with their family to attend the induction ceremony and celebrate their 66th wedding anniversary. They were joyfully surprised by longtime friends from Tennessee and even reunited with a cousin they hadn't seen in 30 years. The weekend was filled with laughter, delicious seafood, and heartfelt memories as they visited favorite restaurants, their childhood homes, and the church where they were married.

God is so faithful!

Stewards Assistance Fund Collection

On the first Sunday of October, November, and December, as part of our Sunday offering, we receive donations for the Stewards Assistance Fund. Any loose change given on these days is directed toward the fund. You may also write checks designated to this fund at any time. These gifts provide confidential support to those in our church family facing unexpected needs, allowing us to extend Christ's love in practical ways.

Do You Have a Background in Care?

In our Care Ministry, we often walk alongside members who are facing difficult seasons--whether due to aging, health concerns, or personal challenges. At times, people need more than a listening ear; they need help with the next step.

That next step might be:

- Guidance on getting into assisted living or a skilled nursing facility.
- Support with finding physical, occupational, or speech therapy.
- A connection to counseling or mental health resources.
- Help navigating practical or emotional care decisions.

As the Director of Care Ministry, I want to make sure we are prepared to connect those within our Church family with the right resources when they need them most. To do this, I am building a confidential Care Referral Contact List of individuals in our church family who have backgrounds in these areas. This could include:

- Retired or current healthcare professionals (nurses, therapists, doctors, social workers).
- Those with experience in senior care, assisted living, or caregiving.
- Anyone with specialized knowledge in counseling, emotional support, or navigating community resources.

If you have experience in any of these areas and would be willing to be listed as a resource for me to contact when questions arise, I would love to hear from you. You would not be asked to take on responsibilities yourself but simply to offer guidance, referrals, or suggestions when needs come up.

Please prayerfully consider whether you might share your background in this way. Together, we can make sure no one in our church family feels lost or alone when facing difficult care decisions. If you are interested in being part of the Care Referral Contact List, please contact me directly. Christy Allen, Director of Care Ministry

“Why I Serve”

Transportation Team

The Transportation Team provides rides to those who might otherwise be unable to attend church or appointments, helping them stay connected to worship and community. Each volunteer driver offers more than a ride, they offer companionship, conversation, and care along the way. This month, I asked two of our Transportation Team volunteers to share why they serve and what this ministry means to them.

-from Kathi N.

“In my former church, I served as a Deacon and as an active member of the Social Action Committee, where I worked to help victims of domestic violence. Soon after joining the United Church, I became very involved with Canandaigua’s Care Net and realized that I wouldn’t have as much time to devote to church ministry as I had in the past. But I wanted to become involved somehow, and the Transportation Team offered that opportunity. So I gratefully joined. I particularly enjoy transporting members of our church family to and from Sunday service. There’s great value in discussing the day’s sermon on the trip home, a reinforcement of God’s message to us. He’s riding with us in the car, helping us to share our faith. I believe the Transportation Team is an important part of our care ministry. Whether someone needs transportation to a medical appointment, to church, or even to visit a hospitalized family member, this team meets that need and shows that the United Church eagerly steps up to support its members.”

-from Mary Lou H.

God has always met my needs, often by providing help from my church family and I feel blessed to be able to help others by being a part of the Transportation Team. I especially enjoy bringing friends to Sunday worship services as a way to keep them connected with their church family as well as taking part in worshiping the Lord. Time spent in the car gives me an opportunity to learn what is happening in my passenger’s life and often they will point out something interesting in our drive that I hadn’t noticed or had taken for granted. I enjoy being with people, I have a reliable car, and am still able to drive (until the state or my kids decide differently). I always pray for safety before I drive someone and give a prayer of thanks when we arrive safely at our destination.

Sunday School - Our Middle School and High School classes continue, and have successfully experimented with the 10-minute activity time at the beginning of class, led by Lauren S. We will continue this structure to help increase "Sunday-morning energy" and cross-grade relationships. The biggest challenge currently is starting on time, as various students arrive late on different Sundays.

High School Youth Group (The Cause) - Our program year is going along strong! We are currently working through the opening passages of Romans, and tying that in with our larger theme - the fruits of the Spirit - and the Kingship of Jesus (which is further tied into how our story fits into God's story). We are using the SOAP Bible Study method - which provides a conversation-heavy structure to our Scripture readings.

Youth Club Middle School Group Bible Study - Youth Club is also going strong! Due to the large size of this Middle School class, we have had to break out our Bible study time into two separate groups that rotate between a Bible-study activity and the teaching. Additionally, this particular group of students are high-energy, so we are regularly brainstorming among the volunteers and staff to ensure we provide an environment that helps both our students and ministry succeed. Our Bible Study volunteers include Lauren S, Jen C, and Ed B.

School District Connects - Our mid-week connects are underway! Our Canandaigua, Victor, Marcus Whitman, and homeschooling connects are a fun time of fellowship and food! Parents are invited, too! These connects provide an important opportunity for our youth to cultivate faith-based relationships that carry over into the school hallways, classrooms, and events.

Fun & Personal

My favorite way to spend a Saturday is sleeping in and reading a good book. If I could travel anywhere, I'd want to travel to Ireland because I think the culture and natural elements are amazing. If I could eat any food and never get sick of it, I would eat fresh fruit. Currently, I'm a big fan of Concord grapes and apples. I'm looking forward to going to college and getting to learn more about my interests. I'm also hoping to travel more.

Faith & Reflection

James 1:2-3, these verses remind me to focus on what I gain from my experiences, rather than stress.

If I could share one thing about Jesus to someone who didn't know Him, I would say that there is nothing that He cannot help you overcome.

Sunday Morning Small Groups - Our Young Adult and Adult ministries are in the middle of our 6-week small group Bible study initiative, following the 2 Peter sermon series. As planned, we have a parenting group, a choir group, young adult group, and two “United” (general) groups. We have learned and adapted as we’ve journeyed along together with this type of Sunday school approach. We have received positive feedback from both facilitators and participants. Many have felt that following the sermon series has helped them focus on the sermon during service. Others have noted that the small group time has increased conversation and depth during the Sunday school hour. Still others appreciate the smaller groups, making them feel more comfortable and connected. A particular joy has been the young adult group, which reads the Scripture of the day, discusses the passage while walking into town for coffee and back, and ends with prayer. We are grateful for how the initiative has gone so far, and we are especially thankful for the supportive, adaptable, and invested facilitators we have. By mid-November, we will be transitioning back to a classic Sunday school format; come November 9 to the Sunday school hour to learn about those offerings!

Mid-Week Connects - Our Ferris Hills and Quail Summit groups are underway! Our Ferris Hills group includes a devotional and a time of worship. Check out the picture of our Ferris Hills group from this month!

Adult Ministry Bible Studies - Our church has a long-standing culture of mid-week Bible studies that include small to medium-sized groups of people in our church and community. For instance, we have a men’s group that meets every Wednesday morning at 7am at the church for breakfast, fellowship, Bible study, and prayer. We also have a group of women that meet every Thursday at 1pm at the church - also a Bible study. These groups are open and can be joined anytime.
